Nabil ready to serve nation if needed

PETALING JAYA: Former international Nabil Fikri Noor is willing to continue coaching the women's hockey 5s team if his service is required.

Nabil had guided the team to sixth spot in the inaugural Hockey5s World Cup in Muscat, Oman, last month.

The 37-year-old also plays for Terengganu in the Malaysian Hockey League (MHL).

"Hockey 5s is not under the national programme and the team are not undergoing full time training," said Nabil.

"If the team do require my service as coach, I'm happy to help the team.

"If not I will continue playing for Terengganu at least for another three years."

For now, Nabil's focus is on helping Terengganu win the TNB Cup.

Terengganu will play Liaoning in the quarter-finals first leg at the National Hockey Stadium in Bukit Jalil today.
