Rohas bags RM250m jobs from TNB

KUALA LUMPUR: Rohas Tecnic Bhd's 75%-owned unit HG Power Transmission Sdn Bhd was awarded two contracts for the supply and installation of transmission lines by Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB) worth a combined RM249.63 million.

In a filing with the bourse, the company said the first contract comprises works for 31.8km of 500 KV double-circuit transmission line from transmission main intake Bentong South to TMI Lenggeng, and 22.3km of 275 KV double-circuit transmission line from PMU Lenggeng to PMU Mahkota Cheras.

The second contract entails the supply of 31.9 km of 500 KV double-circuit transmission line from TMI Bentong South to TMI Lenggeng and 32km of 275 double-circuit transmission line from TMI Lenggeng to TMI Makhota Cheras. The contract is worth RM122.78 million with a completion period of 723 days.

"The projects will not have any material impact on Rohas Tecnic group's results for the quarter ending March 31, 2018, but is expected to contribute positively in the future," it said.
