TNB'S DEEPAVALI OPEN HOUSE

KUALA LUMPUR: The Deepavali festivities recently came to life at the Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB) headquarters in Bangsar here where 1,500 guests were treated to lunch.

Guests, comprising TNB's corporate partners, government-linked companies, the police and MIC members, savoured an array of traditional Indian food.

They were entertained by traditional Punjabi and Indian classical music performances.

Among the VIPs were TNB chairman Tan Sri Leo Moggie and his wife Puan Sri Elizabeth Moggie, and TNB president and chief executive officer Datuk Seri Azman Mohd.

Other guests included Energy, Green Technology and Water Minister Datuk Seri Dr Maximus Ongkili and his deputy Datuk Seri Mahdzir Khalid.

As part of its festive tradition, TNB donated RM2,000 each to five children's homes.

Two hundred orphans also received cash packets. By Dawn Chan
