KLHC eye clean sweep

KUALA Lumpur Hockey Club (KLHC) have two titles in their grip, and will begin a quest for a clean sweep in the Premier Division of the Malaysia Hockey League tomorrow.

The two-leg TNB Cup will see KLHC play Tenaga — whom they failed to beat in two occasions this season in the League.

Tenaga, an all-local outfit, held KLHC 2-2 in the first leg and 3-3 in the second leg.

Coached by Amin Rahim, a former international, Tenaga have also held Terengganu Hockey Team (THT) 1-1, and that was in the second leg after a 6-1 thrashing by THT in the first leg.

A real bogey team this season, Tenaga are unpredictable and dangerous opponents.

THT will face an equally unpredictable side in Universiti Kuala Lumpur (UniKL) in the other semi-finals.

In the League, UniKL held THT 2-2, after losing 3-0 to THT in the first leg.

So, there are no guarantees in the knockout as all four teams aspire to play in the final, and they have the capabilities to upset each other.

The MHL this season, like previous years, have been a four-horse race with the other teams making up the numbers even though their expenditures have been rising steadily.

Maybank, one of the survivors from the early MHL days, hired foreign power but still could only finish fifth in a season which saw them win six, draw one and lose seven games.

Newcomers to the Premier Division TNB Thunderbolts, Tunku Mahkota Ismail Sports School (SSTMI) and UiTM-KPT were hit for 44, 69 and 70 goals while scoring only 24, 9 and 16 goals in 14 matches.

But amid the drubbing, there is hope for some.

As TNB Thunderbolts and SSTMI players will also play in the Junior Hockey League starting on March 31, the wounds inflicted here could help them become champions players there.

TOMORROW — S-finals 1st leg:

KLHC v Tenaga (Tun Razak, 6pm), THT v UniKL (Tun Razak, 8pm).

FRIDAY — S-finals 2nd leg: UniKL v THT (Tun Razak, 6pm), Tenaga v KLHC (Tun Razak, 8pm). Jugjet Singh
