Mesiniaga bags TNB deal

PETALING JAYA: Information technology company Mesiniaga Bhd has clinched a RM12.17 million contract from Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB) for the provision of integrated communication services internet protocol/multiprotocol label switching network equipment for TNB operation requirements.

In a filing with Bursa Malaysia yesterday, Mesiniaga said the 32-month contract will not have any material effect on the company's net assets for the financial year ending Dec 31, 2016, but is expected to contribute positively to its earnings over the said period.

Mesiniaga closed lower 0.93% or 1 sen at RM1.07 yesterday, with some 2,500 shares traded.
