TNB too powerful for UiTM

TENAGA Nasional Berhad proved too strong for Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) as they romped to an 11-0 victory in the MHL Knockout Tournament for the Tan Sri P. Alagendra Cup at Kuala Lumpur Hockey Stadium yesterday.

Following two Premier League defeats within a week — losing 3-4 to Maybank and 1-0 against Universiti Kuala Lumpur — the big win over UiTM was certainly a welcome sign for TNB as far as head coach Muhammad Amin Rahim is concerned.

The win propelled TNB to the Aug 30 quarter-finals. The draw for the quarter-finals will be conducted today.

While TNB triumphed over UiTM, their development side — Thunderbolt — went down 3-2 to Politeknik Malaysia at the Taman Daya Hockey Stadium in Johor Baru.

It was a reverse of result as Thunderbolt defeated Politeknik 5-1 in a Division One group match earlier.

Joining TNB and Politeknik Malaysia in the quarter-finals are Sapura Hockey Club, Universiti Kuala Lumpur (UniKL), ATM Airod and Tunku Mahkota Ismail Sports School (SSTMI). Double champions Terengganu Hockey Team (THT) and Kuala Lumpur Hockey Club received byes in today's first round.
