TNB'S IoT COMPANY TRIUMPHS IN ASIA PACIFIC

- Maevi clinches Frost & Sullivan Award 2020 Malaysia Energy Management Solutions New Product Innovation
- A subsidiary of TNB Energy Services, wholly-owned by TNB

Tenaga Nasional Berhad's (TNB) Internet of Things (IoT) company Maevi Sdn Bhd (Maevi) clinches the Frost & Sullivan award for 2020 Malaysia Energy Management Solutions New Product Innovation category at the 18th Annual Asia-Pacific Best Practices Awards recently.

Maevi, a provider of integrated smart home solution, is owned by TNB through its wholly-owned subsidiary TNB Energy Services Sdn Bhd (TNBES).

The awards ceremony was held virtually for the first time on July 8th.

15 companies from the Asia Pacific region from six main sectors comprising Automotive, Energy, Building and Environment Industries, Healthcare, ICT, and Logistics were announced as winners at the ceremony.

The Frost & Sullivan Awards recognise companies which demonstrate positive trends at the Asia Pacific level based on a comprehensive study focusing on real-time performance indicators such as market share, revenue growth, customer acquisitions, and technological innovation.

The award was virtually received by Maevi Chief Executive Officer Izham Ismail.

Maevi Chairman cum TNBES Managing Director Dr. Ir. Ahmad Jaafar Abd Hamid views the award as a huge recognition to TNB's efforts in developing and promoting energy efficiency.

"This award also sets a new benchmark for TNB to continue moving forward in the field of energy efficiency," he said.

Maevi, which develops IoT-based products, provides energy monitoring devices that help consumers to take control of their energy usage.
