TNB'S 'RAYA PERTAMA' FILM REVIVES THE SPIRIT OF COMMUNITY HARMONY, STRENGTHENS HUMAN CONNECTIONS

Malaysian culture has long emphasised the values of kindness and getting to know one another—principles that harmonically unite us as a community. However, amid modernisation and fast-paced urban lifestyles, these values have gradually become eroded.

These values of harmony and togetherness form the core of Tenaga Nasional Berhad's (TNB) latest festive film, Raya Pertama, which explores the challenges of building human connections in today's modern world. At the same time, the film invites viewers to return to the fundamentals of a harmonious society—rooted in relationships, empathy, and understanding, regardless of status, race, or belief.

The film follows Adam, a Chinese Muslim revert attending his first Raya at his wife Maria's kampung open house. Despite the cheer and laughter around him, Adam struggles with a sense of not fitting in. That begins to change when he meets Ujang, an outgoing boy who helps him adjust to his new surroundings.

According to TNB Head of Group Corporate Communications, Samsul Ariffin Zainuddin, Raya Pertama offers a meaningful perspective on festive celebrations by highlighting the importance of everyday human connections and how sincerity can foster a sense of belonging.

"This reflects TNB's commitment to illuminating the lives of people. By highlighting values of connection and togetherness, we continue to share stories that resonate with the realities of everyday life," he said.

Samsul Ariffin added that TNB will continue to play a vital role in providing a stable and reliable electricity supply to ensure that every meaningful moment experienced by individuals—including during Hari Raya Aidilfitri—can be celebrated joyfully and brightly.

The Raya Pertama film is now available on TNB's official social media channels:
