TNB BAGS TWO GOLD AWARDS AT CORPORATE CSR & GOVERNANCE EVENT

Tenaga Nasional Bhd (TNB) grabbed two gold awards at the 9th Global Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Summit and Awards and the Global Good Governance Awards 2017 held in Langkawi recently.

The awards are for the Best Community Programme Award for companies with more than US$1 billion market capitalisation and the Best Workplace Practices Award.

The Best Community Programme Award was granted in recognition of TNB's commitment and sponsorship in empowering hockey development in Malaysia, particularly among teenagers.

The Best Workplace Practices meanwhile was awarded to honour TNB's various employee welfare through the implementation of policies, best practices, etc.

A total of 146 companies from around the world submitted their entries for 38 awards being contested in the event -- the region's most prestigious and longest reigning for corporate social responsibility and corporate governance.

The event is a prestigious and respected platform for recognising excellent CSR and governance practices from companies and leading brands from the region and the rest of the world.

Released in Kuala Lumpur at 12.00 pm, 9 April 2017
