BLINDS REGISTERED TO PARTICIPATE IN TNB'S JMFR 2018

Close to 1,000 cyclists, including visually impaired persons have registered to take part in Janamanjung Fellowship Ride (JMFR), one of Malaysia's popular fellowship ride organised annually by Tenaga Nasional Berhad (TNB).

Up to 10 blind cyclists will be riding on tandem bicycles, joining fellow cyclists for this fun-filled event scheduled for 29th April, 2018.

A total of 1,500 cyclists are targeted to participate in this year's JMFR. The Menteri Besar of Perak, Datuk Seri Dr. Zambry Abdul Kadir is expected to flag off the event at Taman Rekreasi Pantai Peranginan Teluk Batik.

Riders of this 11th edition of JMFR will pedal a distance of 147 km. The participants will pass through TNB's Sultan Azlan Shah Power Station in Manjung, Perak and the surrounding areas of Seri Manjung, Pasir Salak and Ayer Tawar.

Those interested to participate in this fun-filled event can register at JMFR 2018's website, <https://jmfr.tnbj.com.my/>.

About JMFR

JMFR is a fellowship fun ride with 5 dedicated water stations located at Dewan Komuniti Bt. 14 Lekir, Pasir Salak Resort, Bota Kiri, Petronas Titi Gantung and Ocean Bowl Seri Manjung. TNB has been organising JMFR since 2008 to promote wellness through cycling. The event, held in line with TNB's efforts to preserve the environment for future generation, gives participants the opportunity to enjoy the beautiful sceneries of Perak.
